BAVARIANS THE COMEDIANS OF KAISER'S ARMY

Donnell Tells How Fifty Captured Their Two Hundred Captors by Ruse.

ST. JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT
[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE
TRIBUNE.]

LACK, France, Oct. 15.—The wild ways of the Bavarian soldiery provide the German army with most of its comedy. Incredibly sentimental, at times insanely brutal, at other times effusive, they are at once the wonder and the delight of the more phlegmatic types of German.

Let some unheeded and, by all the rules of war, preposterous thing be accomplished in the way of a sortie or a hand to hand encounter, and the explanation is not unlikely to be: "It was those damned Bavarians!"

Better Fists than Guns.
Modern theorists like these men of the north. Their ideal of a fight is a free for all. Roll up your sleeves and wade in. Fight with your hands if you can and draw your long hunting knife from your belt if you must. The knives are carried in a sheath which is fastened inside the right boot. Fair observers say that the French would rather face 500 Prussians in a bayonet charge than 100 Bavarians shouting "Darauf!" ("At it!") and coming forward with their knives drawn. The hoarse chorus of "Darauf!" is said to be no contemptible factor in the grim effect the mountain men produce.

Officers Hail Their Men.
When a German officer shows up his side in the road to pass a small detachment of troops moving on foot he is not only not to give the men a hail but to tell them if all goes well with them. If it is a sentry the officer is passing as he crosses the bridge at the foot of a village street he will pause and say, "Are you comfortably quartered in this town?" The sentry beams and in a dozen words gives the attitude of the population toward the troops.

Hurray! No Policeman!
A group of German officers passing a detachment of Bavarians made the usual inquiry. "How does it go with you? How do you like active service?" "Oh, this is fine," replied the sergeant. "Now an honest man can fight without a policeman in the square to stop him!"

Bavarians Turn Tables.
The Bavarians have not been marched into battle before they took charge of the situation. A stretch of broken and wooded ground gave them their opportunity. The knives were drawn, the wild shout of "Darauf!" went up, and the melée began. It was not war, but Donnybrook. The upshot was that the Bavarians landed 150 French prisoners into camp. The other 150 French in no condition to march.

Turcos Scare Bavarians.
In three days the Turcos brought by France from the colonies were an unknown quantity to the Bavarians, and because they were unknown, the mere sight of them put doubt into the hearts of the proudly cautious soldiers. The Turcos in the black men had the Bavarians frightened and did not like the sensation.

Private "Cops" a Turco.
A Bavarian private could stand the situation no longer. He made a dash from the firing line to the nearest French trench, seized a Turco by the throat, tripped him, and dragged him back to the German lines.

"These Prussians!" he said. "They are the best soldiers in Europe. They have the best training and the discipline. The discipline! That is what does it. It has come down to them through generations of good soldiers. I know, for I have seen them. With them the discipline is in the blood. With them the discipline is in the blood."

Platt Has Lead of Less than Hundred Votes for Senator from Nevada.
Carson, Nev., Nov. 4.—Late returns from yesterday's election in Nevada show the contest between Francis G. Newlands, Democrat, and Samuel Platt, Republican, for the United States senate to so close a vote that it is expected the official count will be awaited until the winner. Platt's lead was reduced during the day to less than 100 votes.

Topeka, Kas., Nov. 4.—Former Senator Charles Curtis, Republican, late tonight claimed to be elected to the United States senate by 12,000. His Democratic opponent, Representative George A. Neeley, asserted he would have a plurality of 5,000 votes. Incomplete returns left the situation in doubt.

Belgians Give Lives Freely; Wives and Mothers Martyrs

BY ARNO DOSCH.
[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE
TRIBUNE.]

It is impossible to be with the Belgian army, making its last stand on its own territory, without being carried away by sympathy. It is a fight of men against big guns. And the men have cheerfully given their lives to hold that little stretch of lowland east of Neuport.

Women Spur Men On to Fight.
The way the women kept right behind the battle line makes this Belgian fight picturesque. They are at the smallest end of the country—and it is pluffing small for I walked from the battle line to the French frontier in two hours—bravely sending their men back to battle, with never a tear.

Wives Meet Men; Send Them Back.
At a little town near Neuport, where I slept, we were within two miles of falling shells. And during the night long range batteries took up a position behind us. But the town was full of women folk of the army.

All Plain Belgians Now.
There is no line left between the officers and soldiers. They are just Belgians now. They fight, drink, and make merry, as well as die, together, and they talk about Christmas in Brussels as if it were a certainty.

WOMEN CALMLY AWAIT WORST.
Ten or more women still were waiting when I passed that way, about 7 o'clock. The only one I saw who learned the worst was met by a kind Belgian boy who led her away before he broke the news to her. He did this to spare the others. He came into the hotel an hour later subdued by a woman's grief, but in half an hour he was laughing and drinking with the rest.

CLARK BLAMES LONG CONGRESS

Speaker Thinks Democratic Losses Due to Election-eering Handicap.

WAR ANOTHER CAUSE.

Bowling Green, Mo., Nov. 4.—The unprecedented length of the present congress was declared the chief cause of the Republican landslide in the congressional contests of yesterday's election by Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, as he spoke here tonight.

Members Kept from Canvassing.
"The causes which led to Republican gains are not difficult to discover," he said. "First, this session of congress, the longest in the history of the republic, practically precluded sitting members from making any canvass, thereby placing them at an immense disadvantage. Since the Democrats had twice as many members as the Republicans, the effect was twice as bad for the Democrats."

Other Six Reasons.
"Second, I place the fact that the war revenue bill forced on us by the European war had been passed only a few days and was grossly misrepresented, with too little time for explanation and justification."

ONLY 65 PER CENT OF REGISTERED WOMEN AT POLLS

Chicago's Poor Showing Is Blamed on Limitation of Suffragists' Franchise.

Approximately 65 per cent of the registered women voters of Chicago went to the polls on Tuesday. This is considerably under the percentage of registered male voters who cast ballots. About 8,000 more women voted in the country towns.

There were 104,641 women voting on the Republican, Democratic, and Progressive tickets for clerk of the appellate court. A comparison of the number of men and women voting for the office follows:

	Men.	Women.
Metcalley (D.)	6,175	12,117
Castila (R.)	41,889	115,962
Beeching (P.)	17,890	48,472
Totals	59,954	176,551

116,580 Women Go to Polls.
The women showed a little more interest in the election of the board of assessors. In the city, 108,848 women voted for assessors and 7,730 women from the country towns, making a total of 116,580 women in Cook county who went to the polls.

Get More Suffrage States.
While the women considered the showing in Cook county as only fair, they rejoiced over news of the acquisition of more suffrage states. According to the latest returns, Montana and Nevada granted votes to women. The vote in Nebraska was so close that the women still believe they will win on the official count. The vote in Montana also is extremely close, and the official count will be necessary to decide the outcome. The women are leading on the unofficial and incomplete returns.

Some Chicago suffragists believe that the work of the Congressional union in the west was harmful to the cause of suffrage. The union has been carrying on a campaign against the Democratic party in the campaign states.

ELECT 15 TO DEATH CHAIR.
Arizona Defeats Proposal to End Capital Punishment on Which Slayings Had Based Hopes.

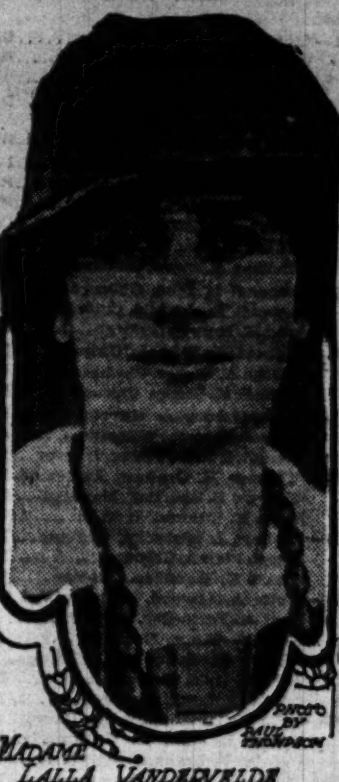

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 4.—While voting their state dry in the election yesterday the men and women of Arizona sentenced to death fifteen murderers, who have been held in the Florence penitentiary under reprieve pending the outcome of the halting on the proposal to abolish capital punishment.

Returned up to tonight made it practically certain that with the exception of the prohibition amendment and one other, all the measures on the ballot were defeated. The other was the proposal to limit railroad passenger fares to 3 cents per mile.

GOVERNOR IS ONLY CHANGE IN OREGON'S PARTY LINEUP.

Returns Senator and Two Congressmen, While One Republican Displaces an Independent.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 4.—With the exception of governor, the political complexion of Oregon's roster of public officials was changed very little by yesterday's election.

Barred by Ickes.
"I want to talk to you," Dr. Strouse said, and I was met by a man at the door who said that Harold Ickes had given orders not to allow me in the room. Ickes spent an hour telling the congressional chairman in an Indiana district what a dangerous man I was. Yet I believe that I represent as well as it is possible for a human being to represent it, that new gospel of sociology which Theodore Roosevelt expressed when he withdrew from the party dominated by Fenimore and Barnes in 1902.

Ocala, Fla., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—John E. Loughrey, foreman of a government dredge boat, was drowned in two feet of water in a "wrecking" today. The suggestion is that he fell, striking his head against a skiff, and then rolled into the river.

WAR BREAKS OUT IN MOOSE RANKS; ICKES ASSAILED

Chairman Is Condemned as a Perfect Example of the Political Boss.

Dimension, which has been brewing in the ranks of the Progressive party in Cook county for several weeks, broke out in a full-fledged conflagration at the Progressive club, 19 West Jackson boulevard, last night.

Man after man arose and condemned Harold Ickes, county chairman and campaign manager, as the most perfect model of the political boss which the Progressive party was organized as a protest against. Ickes was charged with the defeat of most of the Progressive tickets.

Move to Elect Knight.
His advocacy in dealing with the candidates and the domination of the party organization was made the basis of a movement for the election of Thomas Knight, president of the Progressive club, as chairman of the county organization. It was charged that Ickes had abused Knight in speeches and in letters.

"I know why I was persecuted. I would not wear the collar of dictation with the Harold Ickes brand on it. I am going to stay in the Bull Moose party until the Bull Moose throws some of the boys who have been riding him over his head and gores them."

"Hindered and Hampered."
"The members of the Progressive party have been hindered, hampered, and persecuted by a county chairman who should have had sympathy for them."

Stood with Merriam.
Ickes has stood with the Merriam faction which has believed in a nonpartisan arrangement appealing to sentiment as a means instead of the individual voter.

LEGISLATOR VOTE ENABLES G.O.P. TO ELECT SPEAKER

Republicans Have 77 Members to Democrats' 69, According to Returns.

Returns at midnight indicated the Republicans have elected exactly seventy-seven members of the next Illinois house of representatives and are in a position to elect a speaker without a bipartisan arrangement. The personnel of the new house may be changed by the later and official figures. As the reports came in from over the state, the political division was:

Republicans 77
Democrats 69
Progressives 1
Socialists 1

May Depend on Quincy.
The political complexion of the senate may depend on a special election in the Quincy district to elect a successor to the late Senator Campbell S. Hearn, who was one of the holdovers and who died in October. According to the latest figures, the senate stands:

Republicans 35
Democrats 34
Progressive 1
Vacancy 1

Liquor Issue in Doubt.
With the uncertainty that exists about some of the downstate districts the wet and dry leaders were hesitant in making any prognostications as to what will be the issue on the liquor issue. Conservative members predicted the county option bill, as proposed by the drys, will not be passed and that no attempt will be made by the wets to repeal the present township option act.

The senate probably is wet, while the probabilities are that the house is dry by a margin of not more than two votes. Some of the representatives elect are undecided on the wet and dry question.

Basic Law Convention.
From the tentative list of members elected the boosters for the proposed constitutional convention took great satisfaction. A large proportion of the men who will sit in the next session are openly pledged to support the submission of the proposition to call a convention, and it is probable immediate steps will be undertaken to open the campaign at Springfield.

The failure of the Progressives to make a big showing in Chicago was responsible for a falling off of the Progressive strength of twenty-seven in the last house to not to exceed five in the next house. If the Republicans have won seventy-seven seats, as seemed probable, the Progressives will not have even the balance of power which had been expected. They had claimed not less than thirty-five in their pre-election forecasts.

Who Will Be Speaker?
The speakership fight will not open in earnest until the official canvass gives a better indication of who will be entitled to seats in the house. The tentative field embraces Edward D. Shurtleff, Homer J. Tice, George H. Wilson, and Walter M. Frovine, Republicans, and William A. Hubbard, W. C. Kane, and Lee O'Neill, Democrats, with a Chicago Democrat later to be started.

Failure of the Democrats to secure a working majority in the senate is held a serious blow to the plans of the state administration. Gov. Dunn's lieutenants were positive the governor's friends would be in certain control of the upper branch of the general assembly, and thereby would be able to stop any offensive movements made during the last two years of the Dunn regime by Republicans and anti-administration Democrats in the house.

DEMOCRATS KEEP MAJORITY OF 21 IN LOWER HOUSE

Elections Result in Reducing Power to Control Affairs of Congress.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

The latest returns of the election throughout the country, while still incomplete, emphasize the tremendous gains made by the Republicans and the dwindling of the Progressive vote to almost a negligible quantity.

Unless the result is changed by the complete return, the Democrats will have a majority of only twenty-one in the lower of representatives in the Sixty-fourth congress, compared with the 145 votes which represent their margin of control in that body as at present constituted.

In the senate the Democrats have made a net gain of one seat. On the basis of the latest returns, their majority in the senate of the next congress will be twelve, compared with ten at present.

Division of Party Strength.

The latest reports from all states show this division of party strength in the Sixty-fourth congress:

State	Dem.	Rep.	Prog.
Alabama	4	41	1
Arizona	228	196	10

There is one Socialist among the new members of the house.

In the house, according to these figures, the Democrats lost sixty-two seats, the Republicans gained sixty-seven, the Progressives lost six, and the Socialists gained one.

Two New Democrat Senators.

The Democrats captured two senate seats held by Republicans—one in South Dakota and another in California. Senator Crawford of South Dakota, Republican, will be succeeded by E. S. Johnson, Democrat, who defeated the Republican nominee, Congressman Burke.

In California Senator Perkins, Republican, will be succeeded by former Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco, who defeated Congressman Knowland, the Republican candidate, and Francis J. Heney, Progressive.

Curtis Victor in Kansas.

Former Senator Curtis of Kansas, an old guard Republican, who voted first for and then against Lorimer, came election by a plurality of 12,000. Congressman Taylor, his Democrat opponent, claims victory by 6,000. Victor Murdoch, Progressive, makes no claim, but he appears to be out of the reckoning.

The experience of Senator Boies Penrose, the eminent boss and spokesman, with the electorate of Pennsylvania upon submitting his candidacy directly to the people for the first time in his senatorial career, is exceeding instructive.

Every batch of returns increases his plurality over Gifford Pinchot, Progressive, and A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat. At present writing it is 230,000. Much to the satisfaction of old line Republicans the greatest triumph of the election was won by the man whom Col. Roosevelt did his utmost to defeat. Roosevelt carried Pennsylvania in 1912 by only 50,000.

Nevada Fight in Doubt.

The result in Nevada is still in doubt. The race between Senator Newlands, Democrat, and Samuel Platt, Republican, was extremely close and the returns are incomplete. Newlands is in the lead.

The senatorial race in Utah was an extremely close one. Both Senator Smoot, Republican, and James H. Hays, Democrat, claim the victory. The official count may be required to determine the result.

Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, who had a hard fight, won out, according to nearly complete returns, but the Republicans carried the three congressional districts. Representative Lafferty, who went to congress as a Progressive, was defeated.

In Missouri Senator Stone is returned by a plurality of 50,000. The Republican candidate in St. Louis, however, gives the Republicans two congressmen, Meeker and Dyer.

Victory of Shively Verified.

The reelection of Senator Shively of Indiana by a plurality of approximately 25,000 was verified by the latest returns. In Iowa Senator Cummins' plurality over Representative Connolly, Democrat, was estimated at about 30,000. The Republicans carried all congressional districts except the Eleventh, in which T. J. Steele, Democrat, defeated Representative Scott, Republican.

Senator Jones of Washington, the Republican who voted first against and then for Lorimer, appears to have pulled through by a margin of 10,000 votes.

An unexpected result of the congressional campaign in New York was the defeat of Representative Goldfogle, American Democrat, by a Socialist, Meyer London, who was counsel for the union makers' strike. The Socialists celebrated the victory by a brass band parade through the east side quarters of New York City.

Division of Illinois Men.

In the Illinois delegation in the house there will be seventeen Republicans, three Democrats, and one Progressive. In the Illinois senate the house twenty Democrats, four Republicans, and three Progressives.

Copy to the lone Progressive in the delegation. He won by about 500 over Republican King. Republican.

Cook County Complete on U. S. Senator.

over the majority leadership when the next congress organizes appears more than probable.

Fear Fought in South.

The report from Washington is to the effect that many northern and some southern Democrats will oppose the selection for the majority leadership of Claude B. King of North Carolina, who claims the honor by right of seniority. He is the ranking member of the ways and means committee and entitled to promotion to the chairmanship, which traditionally carries with it the leadership of the majority in the house.

Increasing vehemence of the northern cry, "The south is in the saddle," and the existence of some southern antagonism to King and to the controlling group of house Democrats are responsible for this rebellion.

Henry T. Rainey of Illinois, who ranks next to King in the ways and means committee, will be a candidate for the majority leadership, and will receive support from some northern Democrats threatened to lead a general revolt against the Democratic program of legislation unless Rainey or some other northerner be made leader.

May Throw Kitchen Over.

Alarmed by these signs of trouble, many southern Democrats propose to throw Kitchen overboard. They have suggested Representative Garrett of Tennessee, chairman of the Mulhally lobby investigation committee. In order to get Rainey out of the way the southerners have made the further proposal that he be promoted over Kitchen's head to the chairmanship of the ways and means committee.

If Garrett should be selected the majority leadership would be made a distinct office like the minority leadership, and the incumbent would be a member of no committee.

Altogether this brewing revolt of the northern Democrats from southern domination appears to be growing as a result of the encouragement of effective insurgency given by the dividing of the Democratic majority. It is not unlikely that the southerners will find themselves compelled to relinquish to the north several committee chairmanships in order to keep peace in the camp.

elects, was suggested, when Mr. Deussenstein said:

The only contest that can be likened to this one is that which resulted when Adlai Stevenson contested the election of Deussen to the governorship in 1908. Deussen won by about 22,000, it was claimed. I don't want to incite that Mr. Sullivan will contest the election if it is found that he has lost out by a small margin, for I am sure that there is no chance that he has not won out.

Official G. O. P. Statement.

This official statement was given out by Walter A. Rosenfield, chairman of the executive committee of the Republican state committee:

Official reports from downstate counties heard from give Sherman a lead which will be increased materially by the official count, and in our judgment, will be about 15,000.

"John B. Northrup has been retained to see that the vote in Cook county is left intact. Reports from Chicago are to the effect that the Sullivanites are desperate and may make an attempt to tamper with the vote as it was actually cast." The police returns for Cook county, as tabulated by the City News association, covering the precincts in Chicago and in the country towns, gave Sullivan a plurality over Sherman of 56,000.

STOCKYARDS TO SHUT DOWN FOR 10 DAY PERIOD

State Orders Closing to Fight the Foot and Mouth Disease.

St. Joseph, Mo., Kansas City, Kas., East St. Louis, Ill., and Oklahoma City.

"If the order continues in force for any length of time, we can have meat shipped in from our other houses. Our by-products plants at the Chicago yards will not be affected, as material for this purpose can be shipped in from the outside. Our entire office force will remain at work as usual, and all employees in the butchering, casing, and other departments will continue at work."

Shippers are Telegraphed.
Farmers ship cattle to the Chicago market from twenty-two states and when the rumor first spread that the yards were to be closed warnings by wire went by the thousands to these shippers by the various commission houses. Late last night the lobby of the Stockyards Inn was crowded with commission men scrambling to send confirmation of the earlier messages telling the shippers to send their cattle to other packing centers.

Show Animals Infected.
The closing of the Union stock yards was ordered following the finding of six infected steers among a herd of 500 feeders at the yards and eleven infected Holstein cows, which were exhibited at the National Dairy show in the live stock pavilion.

A conference was held during the evening at the Stockyards Inn between representatives of the packers, commission merchants, and government and state officials, at which a petition was drawn up and wired to Gov. Dunne. Those who signed it are:

G. F. Sulzberger of Sulzberger Sons & Co.
F. E. White of Armour & Co.
Edward Morris Jr. of Morris & Co.
Edward Tilton of Tilton, McKeown & Co.
T. W. Jeremia, president of the Chicago Live Stock Exchange.
E. H. Ingwersen, member of exchange.
T. B. Stafford, member of exchange.
A. G. Leonard, president of the Union Stockyards and Transit company.
B. J. Shanley, chairman of the Illinois live stock commission.

Packing Industry Affected.
The largest packing houses affected by the order are:

Armour & Co.
Swift & Co.
Cudahy Packing company.
Morris & Co.
Sulzberger Sons & Co.

These houses have a total killing capacity of approximately 70,000 hogs, sheep, and cattle a day. Their daily business approximates $4,000,000.

Exclusive of this, $1,200,000 worth of business is transacted daily in the buying and selling of cattle, sheep, and hogs by 125 commission houses operating directly in the yards. The largest of these are:

Clay, Robinson & Co.
National Live Stock Commission company.
Hice Bros.
Rosenbaum Bros. & Co.
Wood Bros.
Alexander, Ward & Conover.

Between 35,000 and 40,000 persons are employed in the yards, commission houses, and packing plants, and the great majority of these will be idle.

There were about 73,000 head of stock at the yards yesterday, and it was estimated that about 10,000 of these were slaughtered during the day. About 10,000, it is figured, will be received today before the "lid" is clamped down.

The packing houses will be permitted to operate until these animals have been slaughtered, and the by-product plants probably will be enabled to operate much longer.

State and U. S. Clash.
The state and federal authorities clashed several times over their authority in handling the campaign against the epidemic. The government has no right to order the yards in Chicago closed or to forbid the importation of cattle except from other states.

The trouble started last week when Dr. R. A. Ramsey, chief field inspector of the bureau of animal industry, ordered a quarantine of the yards. Dr. Dyson announced the government inspectors were here without authority in that they had no police power within the state and refused to issue an order following the suggestion of Dr. Ramsey to place an embargo on the shipment of cattle into the yards. He held the embargo on shipments from the yards was stringent enough.

When it was learned animals within the yards had developed unmistakable signs of the disease Dr. Ramsey insisted his former suggestions be carried out.

Ramsey Explains Situation.
The state veterinary has not placed a quarantine on the yards or on any other section of the state, with the exception of Kane and Kendall counties," said Dr. Ramsey. "There is nothing to prevent shipping stock from the yards to points in Illinois. The state live stock commission must know that numerous herds in the state are infected and that some of this stock is being brought to the Chicago market."

"The Chicago stockyards are filled with foot and mouth infection. There is absolutely no way of stamping out this disease except to stop shipments into the market, close the place up, kill the infected animals, and clean out and disinfect the pens. Drastic as the action may seem it would be cheap in the long run."

Bennett for Rigid Rules.
Dr. Bennett said the responsibility for the spread of the foot and mouth disease would be entirely with the Illinois live stock commission unless the Chicago yards were closed so as to make it possible to dispose of the animals already infected and those exposed to the disease. He said the experience of the government officials showed there was no use in attempting to temporize with the disease. He said there was but one way to handle such cases. This is, he said, to destroy all infected cattle and place such a rigid quarantine over the infected district as to prevent its spreading to other sections.

Six Hundred Feeders Isolated.
The herd of 600 feeders among which cases of infection were found were sent off from the rear of the cattle at the southern end of the yards and three of the stricken animals were killed last night. A ditch 180 feet long, twelve feet wide, and eight feet deep has been dug opposite forty-fifth street, and as soon as the infected animals are ascertained they will be killed and thrown into the trench.

The eleven cows which were exhibited at the National Dairy show, some of them Holstein worth thousands of dollars, will be appraised today. Then they will be killed. Under the law the state and federal governments jointly reimburse the stock owners for the animals killed. Their stalls were lined with cotton batting soaked in mercury bichloride and the hoofs of other valuable cows which were in the livestock pavilion, some of them worth $2,000 apiece, were wrapped in bandages soaked in the same disinfectant. Quicklime was scattered over the runways and alleys and in the trench in which the carcasses were thrown.

22 Cases in Lake County.
Twenty-two cases were discovered at Gurnee in Lake county, and 200 dairy cattle which had been exposed to the disease were placed under strict quarantine. According to dispatches from Washington, officials of the department of agriculture said it would be a week before they could forecast the extent to which the food supply would be affected by the state quarantine, which, it was said, probably would last for three months. Every possible effort will be made to move the hand-cups on the shipment of live stock. The falling of snow or severe frosts would be a great aid to stamping out the disease.

Government Explains Action.
The following announcement was issued by the department of agriculture at Washington:

"The list of states now quarantined by federal authorities includes the following:

New York, Michigan, Maryland, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania.

In addition to these, restrictions have been placed upon interstate shipments from Ohio, although no cases have as yet been found in that state. There is reason to fear, however, that infected stock may have been sent into Ohio. If this is found not to have been the case, the embargo will be lifted.

"This outbreak, which is the first in the United States since 1908, is regarded as the most serious of any that the United States has yet experienced. Not only has it already spread over an extensive area, but its virulence seems to be above the average. Vigorous measures will be necessary to stamp it out. The cost of suppressing the last outbreak, in 1908, was estimated at $299,112. In addition, the loss to dairy and stock raisers was heavy."

Stock Shipments Prohibited.

"Interstate shipments of cattle, sheep, and swine are absolutely prohibited from the states now quarantined. Stock can not even be sent from one infected state to another. The federal authorities are at present engaged in endeavoring to ascertain the exact area over which the infection has spread, and as soon as this is known, it will, it is hoped, be possible to lift the quarantine from sections now included in it."

New York and Maryland were added to the list of quarantined states when cases of infection were discovered at Seneca Falls, N. Y., and at Hagerstown, Md. Calvin J. Huseon, state commissioner of agriculture, placed a quarantine on cattle at the East Buffalo (N. Y.) stock yards shortly after noon. Bernard P. Wende of the federal bureau of animal industry said no cases of infection had been found in the yards there, but that the quarantine was deemed expedient in view of the discovery of an infected herd at Seneca Falls. These cattle are believed to have been infected by cattle from Niles, Mich.

The disease was found to have been transmitted to herds on six different farms near Ried, in Washington county, Md., by cattle shipped from the Chicago yards.

Besides the infected Greenacres area in Pennsylvania, fresh cases of the disease have been found among herds near Lancaster, York, Lititz, Herrville, Royersburg, Collegeville, and West Chester, in the southeastern part of the state. So far as is known, the diseased cattle in Michigan are confined to Lenawee and Berrien counties. A few have been found in St. Joseph county in Indiana. A quarantine was placed on the stock yards at Indianapolis as a precautionary measure. It was said, Gov. Ralston in his proclamation prohibiting the importation of cattle, sheep, or swine from Ohio, Illinois, Pennsylvania, or Michigan said that such shipments "would be prejudicial to the health of the domestic animals of this state and a menace to its entire animal industry, as well as to the health of the people and their food supply."

DEMOCRAT FROM CALIFORNIA
Returns Appear to Give James D. Phelan 5,000 Victory in Senatorial Race.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 4.—Returns from yesterday's election, drifting in slowly today, failed to reverse any of the results indicated in the earlier snap tallies, but seemingly removed doubt regarding the outcome of the senatorial contest. James D. Phelan, Democrat, drew away slowly from Joseph R. Knowland, Republican, until late today his plurality had passed the 5,000 mark.

Republicans Concede Defeat for Governor, State Secretary, and Treasurer.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 4.—Republican state headquarters late today conceded the election of Democratic candidates for governor, secretary of state, and state treasurer, but claimed the remainder of the state ticket. Democratic state headquarters claimed J. B. Kendrick, Democrat, and Progressive candidate, for governor, will have 4,000 majority.

DEMOCRAT WINS IN IDAHO.
M. Alexander Elected Governor—Congressional Delegation Is Republican.

Boise, Ida., Nov. 4.—M. Alexander, Democrat, was elected governor of Idaho by a plurality of about 5,000 over John M. Haines, Republican, incumbent. United States Senator James H. Brady, Republican, and Congressman Addison T. Smith, Republican, were elected. Robert McCracken, Republican, is the other member of congress to be elected from Idaho.

The Republican state ticket, with the exception of governor and the possible exception of attorney general, has been elected. The legislature will be Republican.

All parties are pledged to submit a constitutional amendment for statewide prohibition.

MORATORIUM UP; BRITAIN CALM

Interest Now Centers on the First Fortnightly Settlement on Nov. 18.

EXCHANGE OPENS SOON.

New York, Nov. 4.—[Special.]—The British moratorium ended today and great interest centers on the first fortnightly settlement to be held Nov. 18. This will be the first since the war began. The British government announced today through the stock exchange committee the terms upon which loans will be made to facilitate these settlements. It was announced that the London stock exchange will not be reopened until after the settlement, but there was a strong intimation that business would be resumed shortly thereafter. In the meantime the monetary situation in New York is rapidly returning to the normal.

CAUSES NO DIFFICULTY.
[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The moratorium ended tonight without causing a ripple in the money market. Business in pre-moratorium bills of the Bank of England is now very small. Money is abundant. Overnight loans are quoted at 1 per cent; weekly at 1 1/2 to 2 per cent. Discounts are quiet at 8 to 9 1/2.

Under various schemes recently devised in conjunction with the treasury, a kind of local moratorium to meet special cases still prevails and will remain in force until after the war, but does not affect the general financial situation, which, indeed, it benefits.

New Moratorium Unlikely.

The government has the power to reimpose a moratorium, but it is most unlikely that it will take such action. The Bank of England bought $215,000 in American eagles today.

MOREHEAD WINS BY 10,000; CONGRESSMEN ARE DIVIDED.

Incomplete Returns Indicate That Whole Democratic State Ticket Has Been Victorious.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns indicate that the Democrats have elected the governor and three congressmen and that most of the Democratic state ticket have been elected with Gov. Morehead. The final result on the state legislature will not be known for a day or more. The Republicans have elected congressmen from three districts.

Gov. Morehead has a plurality which will exceed 10,000. Omaha, normally Republican, gave Morehead a plurality of nearly 4,000. E. Becker Howell, the Republican candidate, resides in this city.

Returns on the woman suffrage amendment indicate that it is defeated by 5,000 or more.

DRYS LEAD IN WASHINGTON.

King County Expected to Change Results by Returns Against Prohibition Plan.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Incomplete returns give the prohibition amendment the lead in the result of yesterday's election. In 1,088 precincts the vote was for prohibition, 56,741; against, 53,218. It is expected, however, that King county will give a 15,000 majority against prohibition, making it impossible for the eastern Washington counties to save the measure. The eight hour law appears to have been beaten two to one.

For United States senator, 279 precincts gave Senator Wesley L. Jones, Republican, 7,198; William W. Black, Democrat, 4,748; Ole Hanson, Progressive, 4,623.

NEW YORK SOCIALIST WINS.

Meyer London Sent to Congress from Twelfth District, Located in Metropolis.

New York, Nov. 4.—[Special.]—The Socialists were jubilant today over the election of Meyer London, the candidate of the Socialist party for congress in the Twelfth district. It is the first time a Socialist has been elected as congressman in this city. He defeated his Democratic opponent, Henry M. Goldfogel, by 981 votes, and as Goldfogel has for the last fourteen years been returned to congress in the district this is looked on as "some victory" by the Socialists.

WOMAN LIVING IN DARK CELLAR GOOD SAMARITAN

Though Oppressed by Poverty Herself, She Helps Unfortunate Sister.

"Ain't there a smile somewhere in this Good Fellow stuff?" a contributor asked yesterday. Here's his answer.

When THE TRIBUNE printed a picture showing how a poor widow had beautified her shabby home by using 7 cents worth of flower seeds an anonymous person wrote to the Good Fellow department inquiring:
"Why didn't she plant something she could eat?"

The poorest Good Fellow has been discovered.

Mrs. H. out in the southwest district, has three children. She did have a drunken husband. Occasionally, when his wage was spent, he used to go home. The wife was ill, half starved, and dejected. There was nothing to feed the children and almost nothing for them to wear.

Then it happened that the bibulous Mr.
H. decided never to go home again. He disappeared and that was the end of his part in the story.

Out Into the Street.

The abandoned Mrs. H. soon suffered ejection from her unhappy quarters.
She was forced on the street with no shelter for herself and her children. She had no resource of any kind and did not even know where to ask for relief.

With her three children close about her, she sat down in a doorway—just waiting for something to happen.
It was the doorway of the tiny three room basement flat of Mrs. X., a woman in scarcely better circumstances.

"Tain't much, but you can come in and welcome," Mrs. X. invited.

Got an Extra Chair?

So there Mrs. H. is living today, with the United Charities giving what aid is possible to keep up this humble home of singular hospitality.

If some Good Fellow or group of Good Fellows, could contribute a little furniture, a few dollars to establish Mrs. H.
in a better and more sanitary home, and in addition supply perhaps $12 a month for living expenses, there would be a chance for those three youngsters to survive.

As it is this is another "unfinished story."

Helps Good Fellow Cause.

Charles J. Kendall of the Santa Fe railway company, who suggested the plan whereby the Good Fellow department has been enabled to distribute many bushels of fruit and produce among the poor of Chicago, received a letter from Charles A. Floyd, general manager of the Grand Rapids, Holland and Chicago railway, an electric line, offering free transportation from the Saginaw district to Holland, Mich., for Good Fellow consignments which can thereby be transported to Chicago over the Graham & Morton line.

"Since the closing of the steamer line from Saginaw for the season this will leave the way still open for those who are anxious to send fruit and other goods to the aid of the Good Fellow cause," remarked Mr. Kendall.

What a Good Fellow Did.

A special appeal for help from a Good Fellow in behalf of a worthy woman has been received from Louise M. Flower, superintendent of the lower north district of the United Charities.

"One mother has been made very happy this week by the action of the Good Fellow who saw her story in THE TRIBUNE.
He has generously offered to provide her total expense for the coming winter, amounting to $30 a month. Through his generosity she is to have the privilege of remaining at home and caring for her two children, who have during hours of work been cared for outside the home.
This woman's husband is tubercular and being cared for on a farm in Texas.

SHE FAINTS FIVE TIMES

Alleged Resort Keeper Does
Fancy Courtroom Swooning.

FAILS TO HALT HER TRIAL.

Then She Rolls Off Table Into Physician's Lap.

Plain and fancy courtroom fainting, ranging from a rhythmic swoon to a graceless, dull flop, was presented before Judge Newcomer yesterday by Mrs. Mary Mets of 518 North La Salle street while being tried on a charge of keeping a disorderly house. Mrs. Mets fainted five times.
The trial began at 10 o'clock in the morning and proceeded, between faints, until the afternoon.

"Voluntary Hysterics."
Then, after a particularly interpretative and classic swoon, Judge Newcomer called in Dr. Charles Parkes, an assistant city physician. He diagnosed the case as "voluntary hysterics" and predicted that the woman soon would revive.

She didn't, however. After a reasonable recess, on Judge Newcomer's order, Mrs. Mets was stretched out on a table used by lawyers.

Rolls Off the Table.
Dr. Parkes was directed to remain close by. He took a seat near the table and the case was well under way again when Mrs. Mets unceremoniously rolled off into the doctor's lap.

She was carefully replaced on the table.
"Proceed with the trial," ordered the judge.

VOTER ROILS A SUFFRAGIST.

rested for Tatt Reply to Woman Poll Official.

A. A. Turner, 74 years old, of 4332 Oak-enwald avenue, was discharged when arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct before Municipal Judge Graham yesterday. He was arrested on Tuesday on the complaint of Mrs. L. A. Boone of 4342 Lake Park avenue, a clerk of election in the Thirty-second precinct of the Third ward, at 1149 East Forty-third street.

"Your honor," said Turner, "the whole trouble is due to registration day, when I went to the place to register. She asked me how long I had lived at my address and I replied thirty years."

"She then asked me where I had voted last and I replied, 'Where do you think after living in a precinct for thirty years?'"

"Proceed with the trial," ordered the
judge.

COAL MINES GOOD ENOUGH FOR JOE

Abandons Plan to Be Farmer and Starts Back to the "Workings."

ROBBERS GET HIS $3,160.

For twenty-five years Joe Bryak has been a coal miner at Bituminous, Pa. Once a month he went to Ranovo, the nearest town that had a bank, and deposited his savings. With the accumulated interest he had $3,070 when he went to the bank
a week ago and closed his account.

Joe had been a customer of the bank for so many years that withdrawal caused a falter among the employees. President Riley, who had come to the bank as a clerk five years after Joe had started a savings account called him into his office.
He wanted to know what Joe intended to do with the money.

Joe speaks poor English, but he made himself understood. He had heard of a farm for sale in Wisconsin, he said, and he was going to quit the coal mines for the outdoor life.

Through with Coal Mines.
"I have dug in the mines for twenty-five years," he said, showing his calloused hands to the bank president, "and I want to spend the rest of my days in the sunshine. Every day of my life I sang that song about the coal miners, but I will sing it no more. You know the song:

"Down in a coal mine underneath
the ground,
Digging dusky diamonds all the
year around,
Where a gleam of sunshine never can be found,
Down in a coal mine underneath
the ground."

"I am going to be a farmer. A friend of mine wrote me from Wisconsin about a farm for sale and I'm going to buy it."

Joe wanted the bank to give him currency for the $3,070, but the president advised him to take a check. The check was drawn on a bank at Wausau, Wis.,
and Joe was to go there and cash it.

Friends See Him Off.
All of Joe's miner friends were at the railroad depot to see him off when he left town last Sunday. He arrived at Phillips, Wis., Tuesday, and was driven out in the country a few miles to the farm.

It was the first time in twenty-five years that he had been away from the coal mines.
There was no tittle in sight, and there were no mules or little cars into which the coal is loaded.

Joe was seized with homesickness. He no longer wanted to be a farmer. If there had been a mule anywhere around he says he would have embraced it.

Joe arrived in Chicago yesterday on his way back to Pennsylvania. He had the check for $3,070 and $100 in currency.
During the day he visited several nickel shows and a half dozen saloons. He drank more than he should.

He was inquiring the way to the Pennsylvania depot in the evening when two men dragged him into an alley and robbed him. They took $90 and the check for $3,070, which he carried in an inside pocket.

Joe reported the robbery to the police.
It is thought payment of the check can be stopped by telegraphing the Wausau bank.

RUSSIAN RUBLES TAKEN.

Husband Finds Wife Hysterical on Arrival at Home.

One each dressed young man rang the door bell of a flat occupied by Mrs. Anna Anjela in the rear of 618 West Fifteenth street about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. When Mrs. Anjela responded the men began questioning her in Polish.
While she was conversing with one the other slipped into the hallway and seized her, she told the police. His companion drew a revolver and ordered her to remain quiet. She struggled with them, but was overpowered. The men bound Mrs. Anjela hand and foot and gagged her.

Then Ransack the House.
They carried her into a bedroom, and placing her on a bed began ransacking the house. After a search of fifteen minutes they discovered $100 hidden in a trunk.

From a little cloth bag tied around Mrs. Anjela's neck they found 405 Russian rubles in paper money, equal in United States money to $302.50. Locking the front door and taking the key the men then left by climbing through a rear window.

Finds Wife Hysterical.
Two hours later Felix Anjela returned home from work. Receiving no response to his knocks, he went to the rear of the building, where he found the window open. Getting a ladder, he climbed in and found his wife hysterical. He quickly un-dressed her hands and gag and revived her.

Mrs. Anjela showed cuts on her hands and face where she said she had been roughly handled during the struggle with her assailants. Anjela told the police that the money, which was in paper, had been brought with them two years ago from Russia. He said they did not know where to cash the bills into American money.

Held for Jury as Bargain.
Ralph Wells, an alleged burglar, yesterday was held to the grand jury in bonds of $5,000 by Judge Graham. He was arrested while hiding under a bed in a room of the Maryland hotel, at 732 Oakwood boulevard.

POLICE ABANDON LAKE STATION; ABSORB DISTRICT

Old Building Given Up and Men Are Divided Between Two Details.

The Lake street police station, one of the oldest in Chicago, will be abandoned at 1 o'clock this morning. Chief Gleason tonight issued an order dividing the precinct in which the station is located between the Warren avenue and Desplaines street districts. Most of the men assigned to Lake street were transferred to these two divisions.

The chief decided the Lake street station building was not worth repairing. He said that by abolishing the precinct the city would save $35,000 a year.

Costello to Kensington.

Capt. Thomas Costello, who has been in charge, was transferred to headquarters in an order that becomes effective at 8 o'clock. Another order effective an hour later shifts the captain to Kensington station. Capt. John J. Ryan of the Kensington district was sent to Blanton avenue station, which is created a captain's district. Lieut. Patrick D. McWeeny was shifted to West Lake street station.

The Lake street station, located at 1087 West Lake, was built in the early '70s. It was in the territory covered by this station that the sensational murder of James J. Smith occurred in 1883. Smith's assailant never was captured.

Better Policing Foreseen.

"The station has been condemned by the health department and the barns have been condemned by the building department," said Chief Gleason. "The Warren avenue and Desplaines street districts, even with the additional territory, will be smaller than some of the other districts, and that section of the city will be policed better than before, because more men will be traveling beats."

The chief's order extends the Desplaines street district east to Paulina street, and Warren avenue district west to Paulina street. The part of the Warren avenue precinct lying west of Kedzie avenue is added to the West Lake street territory.

300 CANAL LOSSES TRAFFIC.

October Report Shows Nearly 900 Less Vessel Passages than Year Ago.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—With nearly 900 less vessel passages during the month of October this year, compared with October, 1913, a loss of $10,000 tons in the net freight locked through the St. Mary's canal is shown in the monthly statistical report issued by the United States engineers today. Large decreases are shown in iron ore, wheat, and grain. Very nearly the same amount of coal was carried through this year as last.

J. KEAN, EX-SENATOR, DIES.

New Jersey Man Who Served in Both Houses of Congress Expires at Elizabeth.

New York, Nov. 4.—(Special.)—John Kean, former United States senator from New Jersey, died late tonight after a long illness in his home in Elizabeth. Kean was elected to the senate in 1899 and re-elected in 1905. In 1911 he was succeeded by James Edgar Martin, the incumbent. He served in the Forty-eighth and Fiftieth congresses as representative. In 1902 he ran for governor of New Jersey, but was defeated. Kean was 61 years old.

OBITUARY.

WILLIAM B. McLAUGHLIN, aged 64, vice president of the Houghton National bank of Houghton, Mich., and one of the most prominent financial men of northern Michigan, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease. He was a brother of Congressman James C. McLaughlin of Michigan, Mich., and of Professor of History Andrew McLaughlin of the University of Chicago.

TOM GALLON, the English novelist and dramatist, is dead at London. He was born in 1896 and started life as a clerk. Illness led him from the office to outdoors, when he began to write in 1905.

GEN. CARRANZA DEFIES ENEMIES

Declares He Will Fight to Death if His Generals Stand by Him

GOVERNMENT IS MOVED.

San Antonio, Tex., Nov. 4.—"If all of the chiefs of the Constitutional army abandon me I will abandon my native land, but if, on the other hand, any part of them sustain and uphold me, we will fight until death."

These are the defiant words with which Gen. Carranza is credited in a statement given out at the Mexican consulate here after the receipt of a telegram from Puebla late today.

CARRANZA ARRAYS ENEMIES.

The statement said Gen. Carranza had issued the following relative to the action of the delegates at Aguascalientes:

"These valiant generals have made effective a resignation that has never been presented or forwarded by me, and they have even gone so far as to appoint a president."

"And by this last act they have fallen into a neat trap prepared for them by Deane of the Moderate congressmen—the same ones who distinguished themselves as being responsible to a great extent in the causes which led to the overthrow of the democratic government of the Apostolic Madero. These very same men are now causing more trouble for the nation through their intrigues and ambitions."

Government Moved to Puebla.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 4.—The Constitutional provisional government, with its cabinet members and archives, was moved today to Puebla, where Gen. Carranza has been for several days, an official report received today from Mexico City said. The cause of the change of the government seat was not given.

Reports Anti-U. S. Talk.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Brig. Gen. Funston at Vera Cruz reported to the war department today that rumors had reached him of anti-American agitation in Mexico City.

There has been no direct communication with the Mexican capital for several days, but officials here have not become alarmed over the situation and have taken no additional steps for the protection of American interests.

It is charged the imprisonment is unlawful because the judgment is not based upon a jury trial.

EXPORT LEAD $60,000,000

October Shows Huge Balance in U. S. Favor.

WAR SEES BIG CHANGE.

Imports Were $20,000,000 Ahead in August.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 4.—Commerce department officials estimated tonight that October's export balance in favor of American trade would amount to $60,000,000.

That would be an increase of $44,000,000 over September's balance, indicating the tremendous extent of the trade pendulum's swing since the first month of the war. In August the value of imports exceeded exports by $20,000,000, but as the sea highways were cleared and war began to make its demands on American mills and granaries, there was an immediate change.

Based on Chief Ports.

The department officials based their estimates of October's exports on reports from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Galveston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Seattle, Detroit, and Buffalo, which handle about 80 per cent of the country's total. Exports from those points for October amounted to $108,000,000, while the imports—about 85 per cent of the American total—were $118,170,000.

Figures for the first three days of the month were estimated. The rapidity of the exports' growth during the month is shown by the weekly figures. For the week of Oct. 4-10 the exports were $24,890,000. In the following week they decreased by $6,000,000, but in the third week they jumped to more than $28,000,000 and in the last week of the month they reached a total of $45,900,000.

October Exceeds May.

"The last ports under consideration," said the department's statement, "thus show an export balance of about $48,000,000, while the balance at the remaining ports of the country will probably bring the total export balance to $60,000,000."

The Pine Needle Bath (as given at Carlsbad), the Naheim, Steam, Vapor and Sulphur Baths are unequalled.

Dr. Franklin Lightfoot, MEDICAL DIRECTOR and RESIDENT PHYSICIAN.

It is of great satisfaction to guests to know that there is a house physician who can be consulted at all times for directions as to the taking of Baths and the drinking of the waters. These consultations are FREE to the guests of the hotel.

For special examinations and other medical treatments a reasonable charge is made.

The Medical Herald, Kansas City-St. Joseph, Mo., of October, 1914, says: "In our opinion, the engagement of Dr. Lightfoot as a resident physician at Colfax supplies a need that has long existed, and will be appreciated especially by physicians who refer patients to this resort for hydrotherapeutic treatment. Dr. Lightfoot, who is a graduate of Rush, a member of the Missouri State and American Medical Associations, brings to Colfax an experience of twenty years at Hot Springs, where he has been actively engaged in practice, and this may be just the point at which to observe that patients who are in the habit of going to foreign 'spas' for rest and treatment need suffer no inconvenience on account of the war in foreign lands. The facilities at the Colfax provide every known bath and treatment with which the foreign resorts are equipped. Hence our advice to those who usually take a trip abroad, would be to give their next visit to Colfax; and to those who have never been to Europe, we would say, 'Try Colfax first.'

CLEMENSEN FOR HEAD OF BOARD

School Trustees Talk Compromise in Factional Fight.

BOTH SIDES WILLING.

Dr. Peter C. Clemensen was suggested yesterday by members of the board of education as a compromise candidate for president of the board.

It is believed by some members that the feeling between the two factions is so marked no member who has taken a decided stand in the troubles of the board can be elected. It takes eleven of the twenty-one votes of the board to elect a president.

Not in Either Faction.

Dr. Clemensen is about the only member who has been on the board a year who has not joined one or the other faction. Last December he stood with the opponents of Mrs. Young after she resigned on the floor of the board. During the year, however, he has supported her consistently, and it is believed the friends of Mrs. Young on the board would accept him as president.

The other faction, which is a minority, probably would prefer Dr. Clemensen to Jacob M. Loeb or Michael J. Coffina, both leaders in the faction supporting Mrs. Young.

Robert J. Rouillon of the other faction was nominated for vice president at the time Mr. Loeb was elected, but failed to get any votes from the majority faction.

No Trustee a Candidate.

No trustees announced their candidacy for the presidency, and it is expected none will do so openly until Peter Reinberg resigns. Mr. Reinberg may continue as president until the election of Mrs. Young is disposed of at the first meeting of the board in December. That meeting will come only about a week after he is installed as president of the county board.

It is believed that if Mayor Harrison specifies who he desires as president, that person will have little difficulty in being elected. Some of the trustees said they believed the mayor would not interfere in the election. In the past, however, he has let it be known who he wanted for the job.

ORCHESTRA LEADERS STAGE MUSICAL GYMNAST STUNTS

Conductors Wave Batons Before Rows of Empty Chairs in Civil Service Examinations.

A man with a baton in his hand gravely addressed a row of chairs in front of him. "Boys," he said, "what we need above everything else is ensemble. Yours is—well, as you would put it—rotten."

Thereupon the leader raised his baton, tapped twice on his desk, and began to wave his arms. He continued waving them right through to the end of the "Medley of National Airs," although the audience of three could not restrain their smiles.

The occasion was the civil service examination for musical directors for the west side small parks. After the candidates had led an orchestra of chairs, they were required by the three judges to lead another assembly of chairs in singing a lullaby, "America," and "The Star on the Mountain Gray." Then the candidates were presented with some real subjects, whose voices they were told to test and classify.

Six candidates appeared for the tests, which were held under the direction of Fred G. Heuchling, superintendent of employment for the west park.

Osborne W. Stetler to Appear Before
Grand Jury Because of Charges Preferred by Wife.

Osborne W. Stetler of 6812 South Loomis street was held to the grand jury in bonds of $2,500 when arraigned before Judge Fry in the Court of Domestic Relations yesterday on a charge of bigamy preferred by his wife, Mrs. Clara Stetler of 1548 Love avenue.

He admitted deserting his wife five weeks ago after living with her for nearly four years and marrying Miss Eleanor Keller, 23 years old, of 5910 Wentworth avenue, shortly afterward in Crown Point, Ind.

Stetler and Miss Keller were arrested Tuesday night, the former on a charge of wife abandonment, and Miss Keller on a serious charge.

Chicago National Banks Make

Good Record in Hard Year.

FIGURES of the twenty national banks of Chicago giving their condition at the close of business on Oct. 31 show the demands for credit and cash which have been made on these institutions within the last year. It has been a twelve-month period of pressure that is now in the most acute stage, as indicated by the fall in deposits and the more nearly steady position of loans. Deposits at $126,654,426 or have shrunk 7.2 per cent, or $12,657,478. Loans, on the other hand, have increased $12,614,230, or only 2.3 per cent. The national banks probably own 7 per cent interest in the country.

On March 4 of this year the banks made their best exhibit. Their deposits were $127,128,196. Since that time they have shrunk $108,468,770, or 19 per cent. Cash resources have dropped $63,203,224, or 26.7 per cent, while loans have fallen only $7,119,358, or 3 per cent. Cash resources are $125,511,715 lower. Loans are only $2,533,135, or 1 per cent, lower than one year ago.

Throughout the year the figures indicate the national institutions have endeavored to accommodate the business community to the best of their ability, keeping in mind the government requirement of a 25 per cent cash reserve. Although cash and deposits have run down, the outstanding feature is the fact that the banks of Chicago are financially comfortable. They feel that the worst is over so far as pressure is concerned, and their position with reference to reserves has been maintained, and that Chicago banks in consequence hold their position of commanding strength.

Following is a summary of loans, deposits, and cash resources covering the condition of the banks one year ago and at intervening dates:

UNEVEN TRADE

IN LIVE STOCK

Uncertain Extent of Quarantine Puts Curb on Buying Operations.

MARKET TREND LOWER.

LIVE STOCK QUOTATIONS.

CATTLE.

HOGS.

SHEEP.

Live stock traders in Chicago yesterday could obtain the assurance that they would be permitted to operate under present restrictions, or if the yards were to be closed entirely to combat the foot and mouth disease. As a result they were at a loss to estimate probable future trading conditions and could scarcely decide on market values for the stock at hand.

Trading in all branches of the market was decidedly uneven, with buyers paying strong prices for stock needed for immediate requirements, but demanding concessions on all stock not urgently needed. Fat yearling heifers sold up to $11.00, while lean desirable beef steers, cows, and heifers sold chiefly 10 to 15c lower for the day. Receipts were 10,000 head.

Hogs opened on a steady basis, but rumors that the yards were to be closed led to increased buying by all killers and prices were given a late boost of 10 to 15c, topping at $7.75. The bulk of the supply sold at $7.50 to $7.75. Receipts were 50,000 head.

Sheep and lamb receipts were disappointing and sales were made at firm to 10 to 15c higher prices, with lambs topping at $8.00 and sheep at $6.25. Receipts were 10,000 head.

Live Stock Market Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Receipts, 10,000 head; sales, 10,000 head; prices, 10 to 15c higher.
